

Phase 4: Approval and Broader Testing

Phase 4: Assessing long-term safety and effectiveness after approval.

Once a treatment or intervention is approved and marketed, it is further assessed for long-term safety and effectiveness.

Several thousands of patients are watched in the post-marketing phase.